New Gloucester, July 4, 1816

Dear Moses, It seems no more than neighborly, that I just inform you of my being here, in good health & spirits, after an absence of seven weeks, on a tour westward as far as Rhode Island! When I last wrote you, I somewhat expected to have visited you at Bangor, - but I have relinquished that expectation at present. I was happy to find a line here from you, on my arrival. So write me by the next conveyance, how your affairs progress on the Piscataquis, and any other matters you may deem interesting. - It is probable I shall remain here a few days longer - at least till after the accouchement of her ladyship, which is daily expected. After which I shall go a tour eastward - if practicable, as far as Bangor. - The season being waiting, I have just time to add the love of Clara & myself, to our beloved brother Moses & his wife.

Wm. Allen, A. A. Jones

N.B. - A toast. - The day. May it soon be splendidly celebrated at Greenleafville, on the Piscataquis.

Mr. Major Greenleaf.

Bangor.
